At this year's conference we will address such topics as clean energy development, new technologies entering the market, energy storage, efficiency inputs, and the role of traditional fossil fuels that remain significant to the system. What are the obstacles to development and new infrastructure? What are the implications for consumer bills, energy security, and the environment? Can we balance the competing demands of the market?

This executive level business forum is the only one of its kind held annually in Boston focusing on all sectors of energy trade and cooperation between the Northeast U.S. and its greatest energy partner, Canada. It brings together more than 250 Canadian and American senior executives, policy makers, regulators and energy experts who will provide their perspectives, share knowledge and explore a wide range of topics.

The event is being convened by the New England-Canada Business Council (NECBC), a non-profit organization founded over thirty years ago to promote cooperation, commerce, entrepreneurial networking and a greater awareness of the strategic importance of the New England- Canada relationship.

Be part of this year's forum and benefit from our unique cross-border networking opportunities and a productive Canadian-American dialogue on timely energy issues.

Day 1: Thursday, November 1

12:30 – 1:00 p.m. | Conference Registration

1:00 – 1:10 p.m. | Conference Welcome

- Jon Sorenson, President, New England-Canada Business Council and Conference Co-Chair

1:15 – 2:30 p.m. | Session 1: Current State and Future Outlook of U.S.-Canada Energy Markets

Energy markets in both the U.S. and Canada are undergoing potentially major changes in response to proposed new regulatory paradigms and carbon reduction goals. Where are energy markets headed? How will market, technological, regulatory, and competitive forces impact the future of our cross-border energy relationship? How are market structures changing to accommodate the changing electric mix and ensure power grid resilience/reliability?

Moderator:

- Seth Jaffe, Partner, Foley Hoag LLP

Panelists:

- Paul Hibbard, Principal, Analysis Group and former Chairman of the Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities
- Sergio Marchi, President and CEO, Canadian Electricity Association
